P ark District Volunteer Program

Looking for community service hours? If so, Bellbrook Sugarcreek Park District is a great place to start. Volunteers are vital to making Park District programs and events a success. Volunteering with the Park District is also a great way to meet and socialize with others, share your expertise, help fellow community members - and have fun! Our volunteer opportunities are well-suited for adults, students, scout groups, organizations and families. To see all of our volunteer opportunities, visit us online: bellbrooksugarcreekparks.org/get-involved/volunteer/ or contact Program Manager, Heather Ficke, at hficke@bellbrooksugarcreekparks.org.

NIGHT EASTER EGG HUNT

Saturday, 4/13 7:30 PM – 9:00 PM

Join us for a fun and egg-citing night at our 5th Annual Night Easter Egg Hunt! Grab a partner and “catch” the fun that spring weather brings, by participating in a real egg “egg toss”. We will then get down to business locating plastic eggs in the dark of night hidden by a sneaky bunny! After all of the eggs are collected, join us around the campfire to toast marshmallows under the stars. One lucky egg hunter from each age group will win an egg-stra special prize! There will also be prizes awarded for our “Egg Toss” champions. Space is limited, registration required.

Registration required by 4/8.

Ages: All ages

Cost: FREE/Resident | $5/Non-resident

Location: Sackett Wright Park

RIVER FESTIVAL

Saturday, 6/8 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Celebrate the wonderful waterways in the Miami Valley, especially the scenic Little Miami River watershed. We will have over a dozen local organizations who work to help preserve the environment, a catered picnic and live music. This river-themed event is FREE and for all ages! Food will be available with a donation at your discretion; all money raised will be used for future river cleanup efforts. This event is a partnership with the Little Miami River Kleeners and their affiliated organizations.

PARKING LOT PICASSOS

Sunday, 5/5 3:00 PM – 4:30 PM

We are looking for families of all ages to participate in our inaugural "Parking Lot Picassos" chalk drawing contest.

Before your family begins their chalk creation, you will hear a story about community and working together to create pride in a shared space. After hearing the story, each family will be assigned a standard parking space in our parking lot to create a masterpiece that reflects the book and anything else your family is inspired by. Each team/family will get one hour to finish their creation. When finished, a friendly panel of judges will award one team the "Golden Chalk Trophy". There will also be other awards given based on fun, light-hearted categories! Each family will be provided 1 box of chalk. If you feel you will need more than that please bring your own (must be washable). Pre-registration is required for chalk drawing participants. Space is limited to the first 17 families; registration is also preferred for all spectators.
